DETAILED ACTION

The following is a first action on the merits of application Serial No.10/616,172, filed July 9, 2003.

Information Disclosure Statement

Receipt is acknowledged of the Information Disclosure Statement filed May 24, 2004. The cited documents have been considered.

Drawings

The substitute sheets of drawings, filed August 4, 2003, are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference character(s) mentioned in the description: 29, referred to on page 6, paragraph [0029]. Corrected drawing sheets are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 5-8, 11, 15-17, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Driehaus('851). Driehaus discloses a clutch mechanism of a motor, the motor having a shaft 101 including a first stop (shoulder between sections 103 and 108), a worm 102, a gear 133, a friction surface 111 near the stop, a pressure plate (bearing 111,116) mounted for movement with respect to the shaft, a spring 129 biasing the pressure plate toward the friction surface, and a second stop 116. The second stop 116 can be considered a disk-shaped retainer situated in a groove defined between a shoulder of section 108 and nut 113. The Driehaus device would inherently involve performing the claimed method steps; namely, the steps of providing a motor, providing a clutch, and permitting the pressure plate to move towards and engage the friction surface.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3681

Claims 9, 10, 18, and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Driehaus('851). Driehaus does not appear to disclose any friction increasing structure on the braking surfaces. Since the Driehaus device relies on friction to achieve braking, however, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in this art to adjust the surface finish or material of the braking surfaces to achieve the desired frictional characteristics.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-4, 12-14, and 21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Gravenstine('137), Fitzsimmons('958), Meunier('308), and Mita et al.('412) show other braking arrangements for worm gearing.
